SPEAKER LAST WEEK

Major Karen Elkington opened her talk with a big thank you to those members working the stall at Bunnings on May 27. Karen manages the Salvation Army's ASYLUM SEEKER AND REFUGEE SERVICE (ASARS) in Brunswick. It is totally funded by such public support as the Bunnings Barbie and is serviced by a large band of volunteers.

ASARS services the northern and western suburbs and would be aiding around 500 clients a month. A visit to the centre's waiting room sees a large group in search of assistance.

ASARS provides oneon-one support particularly with casework referrals, advocacy, assisting with formal appointments... Karen spoke of the difficulties in completing official applications (Centrelink, Dept. of Immigration, etc.) both for Australian citizens and more so for the recently arrived. One example she gave was the Newstart allowance for the out-of-work. In this the applicant has 14 days to complete the application, attend appointments and submit supporting documents. Many fall through the cracks. Maybe they have little English. Maybe they are living in emergency housing. Maybe they are having difficulties with their temporary/permanent visa. Maybe they have 2 or 3 young children. On it goes. At this point, for the asylum seeker or the refugee, Karen's office and personnel are ready.

While the numerous entangling factors are being addressed ASARS can supply the clients with food, clothing, linen, blankets, children's toys and the like - all free of charge. ASARS organizes English language classes where students can also socialize. They provide chaplaincy services to help applicants with their spiritual lives. Numerous clients are totally stripped of any benefits and have absolutely no income for a number of years. It is a very complicated wall they face.

The above could be most depressing were it not for such dedicated and well directed giving as illustrated by Karen in her talk. A similar statement was made recently by DG Tony Bramley: "Fortunately I belong to Rotary . . . an ethical organization that is made up of people who care and who are dedicated to bringing hope to the community".

Thank God for the Salvos!

After hearing Karen Elkington's talk a suggestion is to get a copy of South Sudanese Deng Adut's book. It could be a great backdrop to the meaning of titles as Asylum Seeker and Refugee.

Deng is now a Sydney lawyer and the 2017 NSW Australian of the Year.

This is a truly a gripping read.
