ROTARY GRACE

O Lord and Giver of all good
we thank Thee for our daily food.
May Rotary friends and Rotary ways help us to serve Thee all our days.

LAST WEEK

LINKS BETWEEN PHYSICAL AND MENTAL HEALTH was a captivating subject for last Wednesday's forum at the Preston Town Hall venue. Chaired by President Elaine Price and run in unison with Australian Rotary Health and Mental Illness Fellowship, the forum featured three main speakers. It also enabled Mayor Gaetano Greco tell of Darebin's related input while PDG Terry Grant expanded on the work of Australian Rotary Health.

Associate Professor Felice Jacka of Deakin and Melbourne Universities held everyone silent as she linked the effects of good and bad diet with the mental health of persons of all ages. She spoke of bad diet and the yet to be born baby, pre and early school children, adults and seniors. Mentioning the prevention of depression by a good diet, similar to the effects of smoking and early death. Her last observation was that advocacy for the practice of good diet must come from those present.

Eve Telianidis told her story as sole carer to her son who suffered schizophrenia. It was a saga of trying to survive while simultaneously living a strenuous learning curve. It all ended well with her son now in supervised accommodation with an excellent case manager. Eve is putting her life back on track. Her final message was listen, watch out for others and share your story.

Mark Jackson told of his own saga of falling from business heights to the depths of mental illness and his eventual rebirth to stability and fullness of life.

This was a most successful night with a hall well set up by Geoff McIlvenna and Paul Josephson and a goodly number of club members present.

NOTES AND NEWS

HAT DAY went off with a feather or two and, while fund-raising and mind-raising for mental health, members had plenty of fun. 'Marbles' is a child's game dating back to early 1700 and played with polished marble or alabaster balls. Jack Wilcox had members on their knees playing the game. Paul Josephson marshalled 'Nearest to the Bottle' and Les Woodland was in the air with his kip and two pennies with all playing 'Two-Up'.

Hats got a look in and Lenore Thornton decimated her garden to come up with the fetchiest ladies hat while Norm Pinder took off the mens prize with an indescribable millinery contrivance.

Another good news story. VICKI CLARK has been selected as a winner of the 100 Women of Influence in the "Social enterprise/Not for Profit" category. This is a national award program now in its 3rd year, run by Westpac and the Financial Review. The overall winner will be announced in Sydney on October 22nd. Members will remember the Club visit to Vicki's Northcote base last year.

Vicki is a Mutthi Mutthi/Wemba Wemba woman, who has been instrumental in establishing and running Aboriginal Catholic Ministry in Victoria for 25 years. She has been involved with RecVic for 10 years, most recently as Co-Chair.

It is wonderful recognition of not only Vicki's tireless and innovative work both within the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community and with the wider community, but also acknowledges her valuable contribution to national reconciliation building and nationhood.
